

Dear compatriots,

I refer to my last communication from August 28th and would like to thank you again for your answers and your feedbacks. The Embassy in Beijing and the Consulates General in China will continue to listen to you and to assist you if needed.

In this context, I am pleased to announce you that starting from Monday 28th September, holders of valid Chinese residence permits for work, personal matters and reunion are allowed to enter China with no need for applying for new visas. For more information on this subject, please visit the link below from the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

I hope that this new measure can speed up the return of some of you still stranded abroad.

I take this opportunity to wish you a very happy Golden Week.

Kind regards.
