

SWISS EVENTS

IN IRELAND

July 2022

Festival

SPRAOI FESTIVAL WATERFORD 2022

Spraoi International Street Arts Festival, Waterford City - July 29, 30, 31 – 2022

https://spraoi.com/acts/#filter=*

Ireland's premiere street arts party transforms Waterford into a giant stage with entertainment by international musicians, circus and street arts performers.

The Swiss artist duo E1NZ will present Le Bistro. Esther and Jonas Slanzi do not fit into any category. Crossing over genres, the two performance artists bring speed and lightness, acrobatics, tricks and theatre into harmony. E1NZ was formed in June 2011 with the aim of combining contemporary theatre with circus arts.

This bistro that has seen better times. As he is about to close his premises, a bad-tempered waiter encounters an extravagant lady. Swinging conflict follows. <https://spraoi.com/acts/le-bistro/>

Art

National Gallery of Ireland, Merrion Square West, Dublin 2

09 April – 04 September 2022

Giacometti: From Life

Beit Wing (rooms 6-10)

Irish artist and fashion designer Richard Malone has just begun his Artist in Residence in The National Gallery of Ireland. Malone will work to create a contemporary response to the current Giacometti: From Life exhibition, and will host a series of free public events during his residency. From 7 June to 31 July 2022, he will participate in an onsite residency in the studio located next to the exhibition, spending time researching Giacometti, in conversation with curators and staff, and exploring related archives and texts. The residence will include a public-engagement programme. This will be a combination of private, tailored workshops for schools, access groups and community partners, and free drop-in studio sessions, demos and talks for the general public. From 1 August to 4 September, the outcome of Malone's residency will be displayed in the studio, free for all to visit. <https://www.nationalgallery.ie/whats-on/richard-malone-open-studio-session-2>

More than 50 works by Alberto Giacometti (1901 – 1966) are displayed currently in the first exhibition of the artist's work held at the National Gallery of Ireland. Giacometti: From Life, co-organised by the National Gallery of Ireland and the Fondation Giacometti, includes bronze and plaster sculptures, paintings, drawings and prints. The artworks date from Giacometti's early years in his native Switzerland through to the late work he made in his Paris studio.

Book your tickets to see the exhibition: <https://www.nationalgallery.ie/art-and-artists/exhibitions/giacometti>

Eva Gonzalès Exhibition 1 June – 18 September 2022

Hugh Lane Gallery, Dublin <https://www.hughlane.ie/>

This exhibition Eva Gonzalès: 'What Dublin Needs' organised in partnership with the National Gallery London takes Édouard Manet's The Portrait of Eva Gonzalès (1870) as its focus, presenting a fresh perspective on women artists and their artistic practice in 19th century Paris and beyond. The exhibition will be at Hugh Lane Gallery from 1 June to 18 September and in the National Gallery, London from 20 October to 15th January 2023. As well as works by Manet and Gonzalès many of which will be seen for the first time in Ireland, this intriguing exhibition includes paintings by Elisabeth Louise Vigée Le Brun, Angelica Kauffmann, Alfred Stevens, John Lavery and Sarah Cecilia Harrison, among others.

7/7/2022 6PM GMT+1
Sara Baume
Spill Simmer Falter
Wither

European
Book Club

Join Culture Ireland on Thursday 7th July 2022 for a discussion with Sara Baume, on her award winning book Spill Simmer Falter Wither.

Moderated by RTE's Zbyszek Zalinski, this on-line event marks the finale of EUNIC Ireland's European Book Club 2022. Event free but with booking:

<https://www.eventbrite.ie/e/eunic-irelands-european-book-club-sara-baume-spill-simmer-falter-wither-tickets-368554244667?aff=ebdssbdestsearch>

About the Book

Two misfits – one an eccentric loner and the other a one-eyed dog – forge an unlikely relationship. Both are accustomed to being alone, unloved, outcast – and quickly find in each other a strange companionship of sorts. But as their friendship grows, they are driven away by a community that perceives menace where there is only mishap.

Spill Simmer Falter Wither was published in 2015 and has been translated into several languages including Italian, French, German and Spanish

About the Author

Sara Baume was born in Lancashire and grew up in County Cork. She studied fine art and creative writing and her short fiction has been published in journals such as The Stinging Fly magazine and the Dublin Review. She is based in West Cork where she works also as a visual artist.

Sara Baume's debut novel, Spill Simmer Falter Wither, won the Rooney Prize and the Geoffrey Faber Memorial Prize and has been widely translated. Her second novel, A Line Made by Walking, was shortlisted for the Goldsmiths Prize and her first non-fiction book, handiwork, was shortlisted for the Rathbones Folio Prize. Her third novel, Seven Steeples, was published in spring 2022.

Poetry

34th International Hopkins Festival

22 - 28 July 2022

Newbridge College Theatre, Newbridge, Co. Kildare

<https://www.gerardmanleyhopkins.org/>

William Adamson will read from the work of Jochen Kelter "Im Grauschlaf stürzt Emil Zátopek"

Future event:

Opera

Irish National Opera

WILLIAM TELL - Rossini

Rossini's magnificent and extravagant final masterpiece makes a triumphant return to Dublin after a gap of 147 years.

A freedom fighter in Austrian-occupied Switzerland. An oppressive Habsburg governor. The most famous Swiss apple. And a love story that crosses national divides. Rossini's thrilling epic, his final masterpiece with the world's most famous overture, is his most ambitious, forward-looking and vocally challenging opera.

Gaiety Theatre Dublin

8, 9, 11, 12 November 2022 (booking is now open)

<https://www.irishnationalopera.ie/whats-on/current-upcoming-productions/william-tell>